

QUALITIES OF INCLUSIVE EDUCATION LEADERS

Written by the planning committee and participants of the Parent/Self-Advocate
Strand of the New England Inclusive Education Leadership Summit, April 10, 2009

Bravery

Patience/Listening

Tenacity and Determination: Never Give Up

Compassion

Passion

Understanding the role you need to play at different junctures

Education/Growth/Awareness

Tie your personal goals to larger school/societal issues

Experience

Willingness to be a leader: we all have the potential

Focus

Vision and Creativity

Self-reflection

Realizing you have the power within yourself to help others

Self-advocacy

Ability to let go and delegate

Communication

Diplomacy

Strategy